Hackney Welcomes Premier Fleet Services as Northeast Certified Sales and Service Partner

Washington, NC, October 26, 2020 – Hackney, a brand of ST Engineering Hackney, and Premier Fleet Services announce an exclusive certified sales and service partnership of Hackney’s commercial product portfolio in the Northeast region. The partnership will deliver Hackney’s specialized side-load bodies and trailers, service bodies, and aftermarket parts including shelving and coolers through Premier Fleet Services’ network in the region.

In forming this partnership, Hackney will leverage Premier Fleet Services’ dedication to customer service and support focusing on fleet vehicle coating, repair, and manufacturing services, notably high-volume production paint, subassembly, and custom fabrications. Premier Fleet Services will support Hackney Aftermarket Parts and service, warranty support, and full-scale body refurbishment.

“We are pleased to be partnering with Premier. Their offering of full-range commercial vehicle services and their solid reputation for delivering the highest level of service and products available in the trucking industry brings immediate value to our partnership,” says Mitchell Lance, Vice President of Hackney Sales and Marketing

In making the announcement, Richard Andrietta, owner of Premier Fleet Services, noted, “We are thrilled to be awarded the opportunity to distribute Hackney’s superior side-load and service bodies as well as aftermarket parts. With our expertise in the commercial fleet services industry, Hackney’s partnership is the perfect complement to our brand. Premier Fleet Services and Hackney both share an exceptional dedication, and track record in service, which is why our partnership is a win-win for everyone.”
